❖ Dinner for Caritas Egypt on July 28, 6 PM at St. George Centre, 9116 Bayview Ave, Richmond Hill. Egypt has always been a pivotal and influential nation. Like all countries in the region, its people have suffered hardships that make it difficult for Catholic Charities to deliver their mission of outreach to the poor. Please join Egyptian priest Fr. Henri Boulad SJ and Cardinal Thomas Collins for a dinner in support of Egypt's Catholic Charities. COST: $75 with a tax receipt for a portion of the price. Tickets: 416-275-2151.

❖ Faith Connections' Walking Pilgrimage on Saturday, August 1-8. From the Ignatius Jesuit Centre in Guelph to the Martyrs' Shrine in Midland. Young adults (18-39) are invited to join Faith Connections and other groups from within the Toronto and Hamilton dioceses on a week-long walking pilgrimage. Join us for a day, two days or for the entire trip! The cost is $250 for the 8-day pilgrimage. Cost per day is $50. Space is limited, register as early as possible and no later than July 10. ❖ *The Role of the Whole Parish in Preparing Children and Adults to Celebrate Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist on September 18-19 in Manresa Jesuit Spiritual Renewal Centre, 2325 Liverpool Rd., Pickering. The task of preparing children and adults to celebrate initiation is one of the joys and responsibilities of all the baptized. Each parish, regardless of its size or the number of candidates preparing to celebrate a sacrament of initiation, is able to assist the baptized community in fulfilling their primary role. The conference will name challenges and explore pastoral approaches to deepening the role of the Sunday assembly in the initiation of new members. A brochure and registration form is available online at <http://olcinitiation.blogspot.ca/> or by email: olrcia@gmail.com.

❖ Confirmation prep. courses start in September on Saturdays between 1-2:30 PM. Everyone between the ages of 13-25 can join who wants to know more about God, even if they are not planning being confirmed. Please contact the church office or Hanna: 647-879-5192, szte.ifjusag@gmail.com.

Creating a Latin America which is just and humane
Pope Francis' evangelisation intention this month asks us for credible proof of love for the poor and genuine commitment towards the construction of a more just society based on the principle of fraternity. Social inequality in Latin America is deeply rooted and widespread. The region has some of the highest levels of income inequality in the whole world. There are enormous gaps between rich and poor in terms of accessing basic services and marked differences between urban and rural areas, indigenous populations and Afro-Americans and white groups, and men and women.

Nonetheless it must be pointed out that some progress has been made in the region to reduce poverty and inequality to a certain extent over the last two decades. Despite these encouraging figures we still have a long way to go in creating a Latin America which is just and humane, where the poor, who Jesus loved best, are guaranteed their basic rights and needs, to allow them to live in dignity and enjoy relationships based on equality, with civil rights and obligations for all men and women, regardless of their social origins.

In this context of injustice and social inequality, those of us who call ourselves Christians and seek to live according to our Christian faith in Latin America, have a great commitment which springs from faithful prayer in the God of Jesus and leads us to pledge our lives to building a society based on justice and love of the Gospel.

To be a Christian is to follow Jesus and identify with His feelings, values and lifestyle in our present context. This means recognising him as the central focus and Lord of our lives, in putting into action his intent that another world is possible and creating a community of love guided by His Spirit. To be a Christian in Latin America is to be "Disciples and Missionaries of Jesus Christ so that our people live in Him", as stated in General Conference V of Latin American and Caribbean Bishops in Aparecida.

The re-creation of AP signifies renewal and conversion in our way of being Christians. Pope Francis' intention invites us to form a poor Church for the poor, as he tells us, deeply embracing a clear evangelical option for the poor, accepting the plurality of our cultures, safeguarding our land and our ecology, so that we can give witness that God is a God of life and hope (Daniel de Ycaza Oehlke SJ, AP National Director in Ecuador).
